SERMONETTE

Neither Are Your Ways My Ways

Sometimes it seems as though the forces of evil exceed those making for the good of mankind. New York City with her teeming millions—the gateway to America, her skyscrapers reminiscent of Babylon. Mammon seems in control and money to be God. Yet remember Christ's parable, the tiny mustard seed, then the great tree. The Kingdom of God? It is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till the whole was leavened. Slow the process but sure.

So over that lighted skyline of Babylon, pagan architecture flames also the Cross. At her harbor's mouth stands the everlasting symbol of human liberty. For every theatre, circus or hippodrome there stands a cathedral, church or synagogue. Mighty men of God—Posidick, Hayes, Cadman, Wise, Rockefeller, Booth—modern prophets exert their tremendous influence.

Education, transportation, science, art, architecture and religion fight against the forces of evil. Catholics, Protestants, Hebrews, war ever for God. No, friends, the trend of the race is upward through all the ages. W. A. H.

Gospel Mission services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and evening at 7:30, conducted by George Brown of Tenants Harbor.

At the Congregational Church tomorrow morning Mr. Rounds will preach on the subject, "Great Expectations." The church school will convene at the noon hour. The Fellowship League will meet in the vestry at 6 o'clock.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Cedar and Brewster streets. Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock. Subject of lesson sermon, "Is the Universe Evolving?" The church school will convene at 10:30. Church school at noon; evensong and sermon at St. John Baptist Church, Thomaston. Wednesday is the Feast of St. Thomas, holy communion at 7:30. Litany on Friday night at 7:30.

At St. Peter's Church, (Episcopal) Rev. E. O. Kenyon, rector, services for tomorrow will be appropriate for the Fourth Sunday in Advent: Holy communion at 7:30, morning prayer and sermon at 10:30; Church school at noon; evensong and sermon at St. John Baptist Church, Thomaston. Wednesday is the Feast of St. Thomas, holy communion at 7:30. Litany on Friday night at 7:30.

At the Universalist church tomorrow there will be preaching at 10:30 by Rev. C. A. Knickerbocker, subject "Preparing for Christmas." The choir will sing the anthem "The Morning Light is Breaking." Scott, and a contralto solo, "He Shall Feed His Flock." Handel, will be sung by Mrs. Morgan. Church School and Men's Forum met at 12, topic for discussion at the forum, "The Crime Wave in America—Its Causes and Cure." The Junior Y. P. C. U. will meet at 3, leader, Constance Knickerbocker, and Y. P. C. U. at 6, leaders, Lucy Marsh and Thelma Littlefield.

At the Pratt Memorial Church Rev. John Dunstan will preach in the morning on "Social Robbers." The choir will render the anthem "Appear Thou Light Divine." and Miss Crockett will sing "He Shall Feed His Flock Like a Shepherd." The church school will meet at noon and Epworth League at 5:30 p. m. The topic for the evening service will be "The Narrow Minded Man" and the anthem "Glory To God" and other music will be given. The choir will render their new surplices for the first time. Tuesday prayer service will be at 7:30 with "Christmas Meditation."

"Do Church People Need Conversion?" will be the pastor's subject at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning at 10:30. Special music by the choir will include "Be Not Afraid," Mendelssohn. The Church School is held at the noon hour. The Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m. will feature a musical program including trombone solos, duets, quintets and vocal solos. At 7:15 the choir will render the cantata "The Story of Bethlehem." Spence, followed by a brief message by the pastor on "Have You Rejected Christ Again?" The topic for the prayer meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:15 will be "Lessons From the Manger," preceded by an organ recital from 7 to 7:15. The Men's League will be on Wednesday evening, at 6:30.

THE CHURCH VS. POLITICS

They Shall Not Mix, Says Rev. John Dunstan—Women, Somewhat Vexed, May Seek Other Quarters.

In spite of protests lodged with the press this week by Rev. John Dunstan, Senator Frederick W. Hinckley of South Portland spoke last night before the Woman's Educational Club in the vestry of the Methodist Church. In a vigorous and eloquent style, reminiscent of old-time orators, the Senator paid tribute to the members of the Educational Club, its president and the ladies in general. He then surveyed American history from the landing of the Pilgrims down through hardships and wars; the blowing up of the Maine, horrors of the late war to the present condition of prosperity and happiness. He regretted those "internal foes" the anarchist and the agitator.

The Senator then brought problems down within State limits and announced himself strictly for prohibition and all law enforcement. He extolled the youth of today and said that Maine must develop her resources so that the boys and girls of the State could stay at home profitably after leaving college. He delighted his audience with his remarks on the Thomaston Cement plant. "The Senator dwelt on the old 'prison scandal' which, he said, had done so much harm with its false reports and impressions.

Mr. Hinckley was at his best on the much mooted subject of water-power. He compared the power now useless and wasted, to time and money, and asked if we were to save the latter in case our grandchildren might sometime want it. The power must be developed, used and sold with the greatest benefit and profit to all. Big business should be given every encouragement to come to Maine and develop the State.

When Mrs. Rich asked for any questions, as is usual in the form that is part of the club's proceedings, Mr. Dunstan asked if he might explain his situation as regards the recent publicity that he has brought on himself and the club.

Mrs. Rich said that perhaps it would be better at some other moment as Mr. Hinckley's time was valuable, but Senator Hinckley met the situation gallantly by asking Mr. Dunstan to proceed and the pastor then explained that as such he wished to know the nature of the meetings; in other words have the club's programs submitted to him. He explained that his letters and messages to Mr. Hinckley had been merely to find out the title of his address.

Mrs. Watts of Thomaston moved to find no Achilles tendon in the jockey-puillist, and the bout went the limit without developing any cases of heart disease.

Battling Sukeforth made a gallant—almost heroic—effort to stage a comeback with Seattle Kid but was the victim of a technical knockout in the fifth round. He had the Kid quite a bit dazed at several stages of the game, but in the fourth Seattle found his jaw at least five times, and the impact sounded Sukeforth's doom.

Speaking of "comebacks" Bud Fisher, who has been out of tune with the local sports for some weeks, certainly did it last night. He knocked Bud Bridges of Portland flatter than a pancake in the first round, and the Portland boy had no yeast cake. He did not rise.

The stormy night kept the attendance down and the Elks Charity Committee again took a licking, financially speaking.

Judson B. Garnet and Susie Cudworth Cashner have filed intentions of marriage at the city clerk's office.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The Past Noble Grands' Association will meet in Camden Wednesday afternoon and evening with picnic supper served. Visiting members are requested to provide sweet food.

The High School Caudron is in good hands, with Wesley Wagsatt in charge of the editorial desk and Emory Trafton directing the business end of the publication.

The apartments in the Glover-Knight house vacated by W. C. Bird are to be occupied by H. E. Jackson, who will move thither from the Stanton apartments on Talbot avenue.

At the parish meeting of the Universalist Church Wednesday night J. Fred Knight was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of trustees caused by the resignation of William C. Bird.

Dr. I. E. Love of Thomaston, who has been very sick, sat up for a short time Thursday and was able to partake of nourishment. Indications of his recovery are regarded as encouraging.

Fred W. Sultor, secretary of the International Quarry Workers' Union, has been in the city from Barre, Vt., this week attending a conference of granite workers and quarry workers who are engaged in the preliminaries of a new bill of prices.

It seems now that Mrs. Frances Grayson has abandoned her plan to fly from Old Orchard to Denmark, and will fly from Harbor Grace, N. F. to Crofton, England, instead. There are quite a few skeptics who do not believe she will fly across the ocean, at all.

Ex-Senator Melvin D. Chatto, who now makes his home in Portland, has been in the city for a few days, on his way to his former home in Brooksville, where he has property interests. He was the guest while here of Acting Postmaster Henry C. Chatto, to whom he is related.

The manager of the Rockland High School basketball team played a trump when he signed up the Westbrook High School team for a game in this city March 10. It will be remembered that the Westbrook school won the State championship last year. Most of its big guns are still in the lineup. Rockland High plays in Portsmouth Jan. 2.

The Quarter Century Club held an enjoyable meeting at the First Baptist Church Thursday evening, with a lobster supper served under the direction of Mrs. Kelley B. Crie and Mrs. Crosby French. Joseph Emery spoke on "Bonds and Securities," which was handled in masterly style. The club is planning for a Father and Son banquet to be given in February, similar to that of last year.

Has anyone a kitchen stove he wants to dispose of? The city matron, Miss Corbett, tells of a very deserving family with seven children, oldest only 11. The father works steadily earning $21 a week. The stove the family uses is propped up with bricks, the oven being useless because of a hole in the back. Somehow they cannot afford, with so many mouths to feed, another stove. In some attic or in some barn is a stove lying useless. "Please, while the Christmas spirit is abounding give that stove away where it will do a world of good," urges Miss Corbett.

The following school list gives the Christmas plans of several of the public school teachers: Miss Olive Dingley will spend Christmas at her home in Lisbon, visiting the following week in Oakland; Miss Glenn Gorrie at her home, Cumberland Mills; Miss Ivy Young with Mr. and Mrs. Karl Toner, Lewiston; Raymond D. Bowden at his home in Bluehill (Mrs. Bowden who has been very ill is reported to be gaining slowly); Coach William A. Macomber at his home in Fall River, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips at Mrs. Phillips' home in Dover-Foxcroft; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whittemore at Jay, guests of Mr. Whittemore's father, over the weekend, and will spend the following week, including Christmas, in Lynn, Mass., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Dunn.

A suggestion—imported auto robes make nice gifts. Coat Department, Street Floor, Fuller-Cobb-Davis—adv.

Col. Walter H. Butler was one of the speakers before the Maine Fish and Game Association at a dinner meeting held in the Falmouth Hotel Wednesday night. He said that the results obtained from establishing the game preserve at the Bog were very satisfactory, and spoke at some length on the organization of the Pennsylvania plan. He paid tribute to Commissioner Maxey for his indomitable will and effort to reorganize the fish and game policies of the State. Subsequently Col. Butler was the guest of Capt. George Angell, president of the York County Fish & Game Association at his home and they "talked shop" until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Mr. Campbell likes the old building, but outside of that does not enthuse particularly about the city. He has visited many corners of the world during his connection with the merchant marine.

Captain Clarke of the Salvation Army is receiving many requests for Christmas dinner from the poor of the district, and has already turned in to the Chamber of Commerce office for checking a lengthy list of names. The captain makes an urgent appeal for funds and asks that while doing their Christmas shopping the public donate to the cause as they pass the kettles, for only in this way is the Christmas work made possible.

H. R. Winchenbach, general proprietor of the Cloverdale store at the Brook, is not the man to turn away trade under normal conditions but he had some misgivings yesterday morning when he saw an automobile make a sharp swerve in front of the store, mount the curb, cross the sidewalk and crash into the store from the rear. It was not the heavy stone pillars the car would possibly have continued its carefree joy ride through the back end of the store and thence into Lermond's Cove. The car belonged to the Consolidated Baking Co. and was driverless, having started of its own volition down the hill.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had to live my life again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT CLEAR
It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
Peace to the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King,
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend as hovering wing,
And ever of its babel-sounds
The blessed angels sing.

Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long,
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong,
And man at war with man hears not
The love-song that they bring;
Oh, hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing.

O ye beneath life's crushing load,Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way,
With painful steps and slow,
Look now for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

The Courier-Gazette

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

Rockland, Me., Dec. 17, 1927.
Personally appeared Frank S. Lydell, who on oath declares that he is President in the office of The Courier-Gazette, and that of the issue of this paper of Dec. 15, 1927 there was printed a total of 6325 copies.
Before me, FRANK B. MILLER, Notary Public.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.—Psalm 23:1, 6.

CONVENTION DELEGATES

At the Republican National Convention which is to be held in Kansas City on June 12 Maine will be represented by fifteen delegates. Previous to the above date these will be chosen at the party's State Convention, two delegates from each of the four Congressional districts and seven delegates at large. It has been a custom quite generally observed in the Second District to apportion the selection of its delegates, one to the western part of the district and one to the eastern.

The Courier-Gazette is desired to present as candidates for the position the name of Hon. Zelma M. Dwinall of Camden, the present State Senator from Knox County; and the name of Frank B. Miller, Judge of the Rockland Municipal Court. No better names could be presented to the convention.

Mr. Dwinall's profession as a lawyer, in which he ranks very high, supplemented by a knowledge of the details of town, county and state affairs through occupancy of office, and joined to an engaging personality, have gained him position in the minds of the people of this eastern part of Maine such as few men active in his political party in recent times have enjoyed. His capacity for wider public fields has been demonstrated in the past two Maine Legislatures, where his attention to business and practical good sense have served to extend his reputation to all parts of the State.

Judge Miller's long years of party activity have gained him familiarity with the political life of Maine and its people, among whom he has wide acquaintance. These activities have been supplemented by the study of politics in its application to national life, upon which he is an often consulted authority. He has held political office, trusts always faithfully discharged. He had the distinction of being one of the electors on his party's ticket in the Presidential election of 1924.

No abler men could be selected for the delegation which is to represent Maine at Kansas City, and their names are now presented subject to the action of the Republican Convention.

"ON MY SET"

Two years' experience with radio reception has never shown me such a complete reversal of form as I witnessed Thursday night. At 7 o'clock it was possible to get WEEI, WBZ and WNAC at less than half of normal strength, but no other station. Two hours later the eastern stations and WTAM were going full blast and as clearly and distinctly as one would care to have it. One other freak observable during the evening (soon after 10 o'clock, if I recall correctly) was the sudden break in a song which was being transmitted over a chain of stations. What happened I do not know, for I turned to another station and was just as happy. Such is the way of the radio.

It has come at last; Bill Sullivan has joined the list of radio fans. If you get two tons of coal where you only ordered one think nothing of it.

"Leave My Baby Alone" is the title of a snappy selection which I heard on one of the stations Thursday night. 'Twould have made a hit in the Forty Club Revue.

The programs are already beginning to savor of the holiday season. Over WSAI Thursday night I heard "Jingle Bells," sung in the spirit of Christmas the announcer said.

Dec. 22—Winter begins.
Dec. 24—Maine Boys Conference at Augusta.
Dec. 25—Christmas Day.
Jan. 2—Shakespeare Society meets with Mrs. H. A. Bufum, Grove street.

The Teachers' Training Class of the First Baptist Church will be omitted next week owing to Christmas activities.

Henry B. Bird of Rockland was re-elected president of the Maine State Cannery Association at the annual business meeting held at the Columbia Hotel, Portland, Friday. Fred C. Black of Rockland is one of the directors.

George E. Dunton of Belfast has entered upon his duties as general agent of the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc. in this city. A sketch of Mr. Dunton's steamboat career appeared in The Courier-Gazette a fortnight ago.

Vice President Charles A. Porter of the Lawrence Portland Cement Company, who has been quite seriously ill, was reported much improved yesterday. It all goes well he will leave the latter part of next week for Florida, to recuperate.

Representative Albert J. Rawley of St. George who was in the city yesterday says that one of the tides last week was the highest that any of the present residents can remember. At one time the water broke clean over the State highway.

The Congregational Sunday school will have its Christmas entertainment and party in the vestry of the church next Tuesday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock. There will be an entertainment of music and speaking. Parents and friends of the members of the school are invited.

The building used as headquarters and stockroom by the J. A. Greenleaf Co. during the erection of the Central Maine Power Co.'s new block was moved to the Willow street lot of the Rockland Awning Co., Inc. yesterday by Charles T. Prescott and will form a part of the latter company's plant, being used at present for storage.

Sadly reduced in numbers Edwin Libby Post, G. A. R., clings to its organization. At the recent annual meeting these officers were elected: Commander, William P. Hurley; senior vice commander, Eugene Ryder; junior vice commander, J. F. Woodsum; chaplain, J. A. Huntley; officer of the day, Thomas H. Benner; quartermaster and adjutant, F. S. Philbrick. The installation will be held at the first regular meeting in January, which comes on the 5th.

Simmons & Hammond, wholesale ice cream dealers of Portland have bought from Ira W. Feeney the property at the head of Tillson wharf known as the Isaac Gay store. This was one of the properties absorbed by the East Coast Fisheries Company when that corporation began its development here and became known as Storehouse No. 1. It was bought by Henry M. Rice representing the bondholders, and he in turn sold it to Mr. Feeney. It is understood that the property will be fitted up by the new owners as an ice cream manufactory.

Class 29 of the Methodist Sunday school held a social and picnic at the church parlors Wednesday evening with 30 members and friends. This being the annual meeting there was election of officers: President, Ida Simmons; vice president, Annie Flint; secretary, Abbie Conners; treasurer, Annie Douglas; and collector, Minnie Strout. The program included a piano solo by Mrs. Carrie Douglas. Roll call was responded to by quotations, poems and remarks. This was a very successful affair.

Under ordinary circumstances E. H. Crie seems to be a steady, workaday citizen but yesterday he developed the elements of a man of mystery. Appearing in the editorial rooms of The Courier-Gazette he called for a glass of water and there in dropped an ungraceful-appearing lump of something or other, said a few more or less necessary words in Japanese and lo—there appeared in the glass a delicately beautiful creation called a Yanaki water plant. Mr. Crie imported a consignment from Japan and has picked an interesting novelty.

The subject of attendance came in for consideration at yesterday's Rotary luncheon, the chairman of the attendance committee, Ray Thurston, giving it presentation. As is generally known, one of the particular tenets of Rotary is insistence upon members being present at the noon-day luncheon, this based upon the recognized fact that such association keeps alive and fosters the principle of fellowship, upon which the order is founded. L. B. Cook of the boys' committee made the welcome statement that resumption of athletic contests between the High Schools of Rockland and Camden seemed assured. A committee was directed to send radio greetings from the Club to Commander MacMillan Saturday night through WBZ. Music for the session was supplied by Bruce Higgs, violin, Florian Clark, trombone and Alwood Levenseller, piano. Rotarian visitors were E. K. Leighton and Carl Sonntag and Earl Ludwick was a guest.

There will be a Christmas cantata, "The Story of Bethlehem," by William Spence, given at the First Baptist Church tomorrow evening by the choir, assisted by the following: Mrs. Kathleen Marston, contralto; S. T. Constantine, tenor; Fred Sherman, bass; J. A. Brewster, bass. The three latter from Camden. Florian Clark, trombonist, will also assist in the program giving by request "The Holy City" by Adams.

Rockland had an interesting visitor Thursday in the person of "Five Sevens," which, being translated, means that ex-Senator H. C. Buzzell of Belfast was here with his motor car which is numbered 77,777. "Hod" was very coy when the subject of politics was mentioned, but finally pleaded guilty to the intention of running for United States Senator "some day." "And when I do go in I am going to start early enough," said the genial lawyer and turfman. Senator Buzzell has many friends who will always believe that he would have won the nomination instead of Senator Gould if he had not been so seriously handicapped by a late start.

Manager Dondis of Strand Theatre returned Thursday from a week's trip, in the course of which he exhibited his Dempsey-Tunney fight film in Guilford, Greenville Junction, Greenville Village, Jackman, Monson and Newport. The picture proved a big drawing card everywhere, and Mr. Dondis has received many requests to exhibit it elsewhere. Mr. Dondis shows the film nowhere if the arrangement is not entirely satisfactory to the townspeople, and he is more than pleased with the fine treatment he has received everywhere since he bought the film. He speaks in highest praise of the Newport Opera House, which is owned and operated by the Odd Fellows. "It is one of the prettiest play houses in the State," says Manager Dondis.

At the height of a recent early morning sleet and windstorm Central Fire Station phone rang—"I think there is a fire at the Jewish synagogue" said a voice and a few minutes later the station's window-opening expert snapped off a fastener and anxious eyes saw the cause of the alarming flame-flashes as seen through the colored glass to be a candle guttering to its finish, a part of a ceremonial. Another queer call came yesterday morning when the lower flat at 216 South Main street was found smoke filled. Investigation disclosed an uncapped receiver in a chimney from which poured smoke backed down from above. No damage was caused. The new American-LaFrance ladder truck is the chief topic of conversation around the Central station at present. The contract called for delivery early in February but it will probably arrive somewhat earlier. Some much needed modern doors will be hung before its arrival in all probability, allowing the "three abreast" layout that will greatly improve the appearance of the plant.

AMUSEMENTS

PARK THEATRE

Without doubt, "The Thirteenth Hour," which opened last night at the Park is one of the most entertaining mystery dramas that the screen has had in years. Lionel Barrymore gives a fine performance in his portrayal of the role of Neville Leroy, the mysterious professor whose identity remains a secret until the last scene of the picture.

The vaudeville consists of the following acts: Claude DeCarr, "Pantomime Acrobatic Novelty," Freeman & Lynn, in "Shore Leave," De Caro Twins, "Dancers Par Excellence," Bert Coleman, in "Just Whistling Alone," and Leroy & Rogers in "They Do and They Don't." The world's embarrassing moment occurs in the new comedy, "Two Arabian Knights," coming to the Park on Monday and Tuesday. William Boyd, in the role of an aristocratic young millionaire, plays violent court to Miss Araby (Mary Astor). Boyd has as his rival his old top sergeant, Louis Wolheim, who also would like to be Mary's suitor. Naturally, since Mary speaks nothing but Arabic (at least in the picture) the language of the two "knights" as they converse with each other in English is not the sort a gentle maiden should hear. On the stage Wolheim played the original Captain Flagg in "What Price Glory." William Boyd will be remembered as the earnest hero of "Volga Boatman," adv.

EMPIRE THEATRE

Hoot Gibson the popular western star in "3-Hour Fury" will have his last showing today. "Ladies Must Dress," featuring Virginia Valli and Lawrence Gray, will begin a two day run at the Empire next Monday. It is a smart comedy-drama, based upon modern life and centering about the love affair of a quiet little working girl who disappears her sweetheart because of the severity of her dresses.—adv.

STRAND THEATRE

"God's Great Wilderness," one of today's features, is a remarkable picture of regeneration, love and adventure in the timber country. Its setting is the vast mountain wilderness and besides a gripping series of dramatic situations, it offers some tremendous thrills, particularly the storm scenes and the mad race through the forest, in which men and horses are swept down a mountain gorge in a wild flood current when a bridge collapses.

The companion feature "Timothy's Quest" needs no endorsement, for it is the production of Kate Douglas Wiggin, author of "Peabody Farm," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" and other famous stories.

Vividly intriguing and adequately mysterious, the "Lone Wolf," Louis Joseph Vance's delectable silk hat adventure, again flashes his delightful ways across the silver sheet, in the mystery drama, "The Lone Wolf," which comes for Monday and Tuesday. With Bert Lytell, famous for the excellence of his previous portrayals of the "Lone Wolf" role, as star, this screen adaptation of Vance's latest novel, provides excellent entertainment. The story leaves nothing to be desired for mystery set in spectacular surroundings. An ocean liner furnishes the background for the main action of the plot. Michael Lanyard, the mysterious "Lone Wolf" becomes involved with a band of international crooks at novel medley of mystification and intrigue. Lanyard, the crooks, and a beautiful young French woman, Eve de Montalais, are passengers on the liner bound for New York. Eve has some valuable jewels which she is planning to smuggle into the United States. The thieves learn of the game and try to steal them. They are followed by the "Lone Wolf," who they think is after the jewels, too. He is in the performance of a secret mission. After restoring the gems to Eve, he falls in love with her.—adv.

WARREN

Ralph Crockett has succeeded H. D. Sawyer as night watch at the Georges River Mill.

Mrs. Dexter Hart has been spending the week in Rockland caring for her daughter, Mrs. Charles Blackington who has been ill with grippe. The fact that Christmas falls on Sunday this year, but is to be observed on Monday makes it necessary that the Monday rural delivery be made. The rural carriers will be permitted to vary from their official schedule and leave the office at 7:00 a. m. The post office will observe the hours of 6 a. m. to 12:00 m. on Monday Dec. 26.

For the morning service at the Baptist Church Rev. H. M. Purinton has chosen as his theme "The Expected Christ." His topic for the evening worship is "The Love-Meter." The Y. P. S. C. E. and Sunday School convene at their usual hours.

Rev. C. D. Paul, Congregational Church will speak Sunday morning on "The Unaccomplished Purpose." "What Bethlehem Has Produced" is the topic for the evening service. The newly organized Young Peoples' Society will meet at 6 o'clock with Parker K. Starrett as leader.

Fred Spear of Springfield, Mass., has been visiting W. E. Spear for a few days.

LOST TO BATH GIRLS

Camden Basketball Lassies Not Up To Standard On Wednesday Night.

The girls' basketball team of Camden High School was defeated 30 to 23 in Bath Wednesday night by the girls' team of Morse High. The Times thus describes the game:

The Bath team got away to a slow start but picked up speed during the second period and proceeded to run away with the Over East visitors. Only a sensational last period sprint by the Camden lassies prevented them from being swamped.

Morse was leading the visitors 26-14 with the opening of the last quarter and had apparently salted the game away. But a Camden attack on the Morse basket broke with a fury of a young tornado and before the Morse team could get its bearings, a certain Miss Milliken, ace of the visiting team, had chalked up three sensational floor goals to bring the tally up to 26-20.

This comeback had the fans holding their breath for the result. But a natural death when Capt. Cressey of Morse tossed in a counter from the floor and Billy Thompson creased the net with the final Morse score. And though Milliken dropped through a foul and Leonard delivered a floor goal, the whistle ended the hostilities with the count at 30-23.

Miss Dorothy Thompson lived up to her rep by tossing in 11 floor goals. The blonde Morse speed merchant was shooting baskets faster than she could chew gum in the second period which was pretty fast. Seven times in a row she rang the bell during the first half bringing Morse from two to 16.

Milliken, scoring ace of the visitors who gathered six floor goals seemed to be away off form. Time after time the clever Camden star would have an open shot and miss by a wide margin.

Plaided, a stocky southpaw guard of the visitors was impressive in her defense work. This young lady had a line of chatter that she should have served as inspiration to her buddies.

STATE OF MAINE

County of Knox, ss.
To the Honorable Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be held at Rockland, within and for said County, on the first Tuesday of April, A. D. 1928:

Julia Feyler, of Rockland, in said County, wife of Edward C. Feyler, respectfully represents: that she was lawfully married to the said Edward C. Feyler at Thomaston, in said County of Knox on the twelfth day of December A. D. 1922; that they lived together as husband and wife at said Thomaston and at said Rockland from the time of their said marriage until the twenty-seventh day of September, A. D. 1924; that your defendant has always conducted herself towards her said husband as a faithful, true and affectionate wife; that on the said twenty-seventh day of September, A. D. 1924, the said Edward C. Feyler utterly deserted your defendant without cause and went to parts unknown to her, since which time she has never received from him any support; that said utter desertion has continued for three consecutive years prior to this filing of this libel; that his residence is unknown to your defendant and can not be ascertained by reasonable diligence; that there is no collusion between your defendant and the said Edward C. Feyler to obtain a divorce wherefore she prays that a divorce may be decreed between her and the said Edward C. Feyler for the cause above set forth.

Dated at Rockland this first day of December, A. D. 1927.

JULIA FEYLER.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this first day of December, A. D. 1927.

TRY THIS FOR AMUSEMENT

Here is a little problem to try when you are lonesome. It is more than odd and interesting. Set down these figures—1 2 3 4 5 6 7 9, leaving out eight. Choose one of these figures and multiply it by nine. Then multiply 12345679 by the result. To your surprise the final result will be made up of nothing but the figure chosen. For example, suppose you choose figure five. Multiplying five by nine gives 45. Multiplying 12345679 by 45 gives 555555555. And no matter which figure is chosen to begin with the final result will always contain nine duplicates.—The Pathfinder.

A WARM WELCOME AWAITS YOU

STORE OPEN EVERY EVENING THE WEEK BEFORE CHRISTMAS

SOUTH THOMASTON
Mrs. Harry Smith is clerking in the Woolworth store in Rockland until after Christmas.
Miss Pauline Beals who teaches the grammar school this term is boarding with Mrs. Lemuel Grant.
A great many here are ill from the grippe and its complications. Mrs. L. G. Coombs, Mrs. Frank Fullerton and C. L. Shearer have recently been very ill but are improving now.
Mrs. Lizette G. Rollins returned to New York Wednesday morning after spending several weeks here. She was accompanied by her uncle J. P. Spaulding as far as Cambridge where he will remain during the winter with his niece Mrs. R. P. Hodson.
Miss Elsie Olson of Massachusetts arrived here Tuesday to visit her sister Mrs. John Helms.
Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Pierce are being congratulated on the birth of a fine baby boy.
Mrs. Margaret Gilchrist has charge of the Christmas Health seals and reports a good sale. If people could be made to realize the good done with the money received from the sale of those stamps, everyone would use them instead of the seals, stamps, stickers, etc., put out by various Christmas card companies.
Mrs. Azora Clark has returned to her home here for the winter after having passed the summer in Rockland.

Wednesday night occurred the annual election of officers of Wessaweskeag Grange. A good number attended and the regular business meeting was followed by light refreshments and a social hour enjoyed by all. A group of fine officers was elected under whose management the Grange should have another very successful year in 1928. Plans for the installation will be announced later.
Frank Stanton has completed his season's work on the Talbot estate in Rockland and reopened his blacksmith shop here for jobbing.
F. R. Thornlyke has bought a fine new grocery wagon.
Friday both village schools close for a vacation of two weeks. A Christmas tree and exercises will be held at both schools.
Sunday night (Dec. 25) there will be a Christmas tree and an excellent program presented by the children and others under the direction of Mrs. Ermine Tyler and Mrs. Ella Watts at the church. Mrs. Tyler wishes to take this means of asking every child to be at Sunday school Sunday morning (tomorrow) in order that further plans may be completed. Such a concert means much effort upon the part of the ladies presenting it and is of great benefit to the children, and it seems that the parents should at least appreciate it enough to have their children at the rehearsals and on time. Mrs. Tyler and Mrs. Watts each have a sizeable family to do for and especially at this season and we should appreciate their public spirit and help them in every way possible.

FRIENDSHIP
Mr. and Mrs. Roger Fish (Adelaide Carter) and young daughter Virginia have gone to Hope, where Mr. Fish will be employed during the winter. A son was born Dec. 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benner of South Waldo-boro.
Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hahn went to Rockland Tuesday evening to help celebrate the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Dr. Hahn's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Hahn.
Two new buildings have appeared at Hatch Cove. They were moved from Bremen, Long Island, by Mr. Giles and his crew from Boothbay Harbor for Melvin and Emerson Simmons. Melvin Simmons and family have been living in their house during the entire process of moving. Emerson Simmons plans to change the construction of his building, making a home of it.
Mr. and Mrs. Granville T. Brow and son Bernard and Miss Lura Morse were pleasantly entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Morse at the Harbor.
Carl Garland has gone to his home in Augusta for the holidays.
Miss Lura Morse left Friday night for Thomaston to spend the holidays with her family there.
Mr. and Mrs. Everett Murphy are living in Winthrop Whitneys house and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Prior the Sam Allen place now owned by L. C. Creamer.
Roland Burns of Colby College arrived home Thursday night to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burns.

APPLETON
Mrs. L. L. Fish is ill with bronchitis.
Mrs. Callie Fuller is reported somewhat improved in health. Mrs. Pease is yet with her.
Mrs. Mary Ness and daughter Madeline and Harold, Butler were evening guests Sunday at A. D. Fish's.
George Wellington has returned from a visit with his brother William.
Everett Storer and family were callers at A. D. Fish's Monday.
Deputy Fish was at Jones' Sanatorium for a few days last week, caring for a patient.

VINALHAVEN
Tuesday night at Masonic hall, officers of Moose Lodge, F. & A. M., were installed by Grand Junior Warden Grand Lodge of Maine J. A. Richan of Rockland, assisted by Past Master Frank Peterson as grand marshal and Past Master O. C. Lane as grand chaplain. The officers are: W. M., Marshall Salls; S. W., P. D. Williams; J. W., C. L. Boman; treasurer, C. E. Boman; recorder, F. L. Roberts; chaplain, F. B. Mullen; marshal, W. J. Billings; senior deacon, Howard McFarland; junior deacon, A. A. Peterson; senior steward, Bruce Grindle; junior steward, Frank Rossiter; tyler, A. L. Pierce. The ceremonies were interspersed with songs and by Blanche Hamilton; reading, Cora Peterson; tenor solo, H. L. Coombs; and selections by the Masonic Orchestra—violins, W. A. Smith, L. C. Smith; cornets, L. W. Lane, Joseph Kittredge; saxophone, Bruce Grindle; trombone, E. A. Smalley; drums and traps, W. H. Ingerson; pianist, Mrs. Ola Ames; bass viol, O. V. Drew. Refreshments were served and dancing followed.
The Washington Club will meet Saturday evening with Mrs. Reuben Carver.
Mrs. Flora Brown was hostess to the Rainbow Club Wednesday night. Mrs. Gladys Hopkins was in Rockland Tuesday.

Mrs. Herbert Patrick entertained members of her club Wednesday evening in honor of her sister Miss Muriel Chilles who leaves today for Portland, where she will spend the winter with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chilles.
Mrs. Anna Roberts entertained the Apron Club at her home Tuesday.
H. Y. Carver's son have been fortunate in receiving one of the new No. 17 Radiolas and it is being demonstrated at their store on Main street.
Mrs. James Wareham who has been teaching at Augusta and daughter Miss Ellen Wareham, student at University of Maine, are expected to arrive today for the Christmas recess.
Mrs. Inez Page of Rockland is the guest of her son Vernard Warren.
Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Walls returned Tuesday from Rockland.
Mrs. Vernard Warren returned Tuesday from a few days visit in Stonington and Rockland.
E. Mont Perry of Rockland is expected to arrive Tuesday and will spend the winter months with his niece Mrs. Minnie Smith.

SPRUCE HEAD
Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Simmons, Mrs. Maude Shea and Mrs. Lola Williamson were in Rockland Tuesday.
There was a Christmas tree and entertainment at the schoolhouse at the village Friday. Santa Claus did his part towards entertaining the children and the parents and friends were invited to join with them.
Friends of Fred Cook will be glad to know that he is gaining a little. He is in Portland receiving treatment from a specialist, Dr. Nichols of that city.
G. E. Shuman, better known as Ed. who spent his boyhood days here and who is now living in Hilton has been visiting old friends and acquaintances of this place. It has been 49 years since Mr. Shuman went away and it is needless to say that he found but few of those whom he once knew now living. He also found the place much changed in every way. Old friends whom he did meet however were very glad to see him and to know that he has prospered in the intervening years.

NORTH HAVEN
Last Thursday the high tide and wind dislodged the runway to the wharf at the Alexander Gillis place and the whole construction was badly shaken up.
Lloyd Whitmore has added several interesting pictures to his collection.
Martin Joyce has a Ford sedan which he recently bought of Rockland parties.
The Ladds and Whitmores are having a very pleasant time in Florida. Miss Clara Whitmore especially enjoys going to the movies.
Will Sampson has completed taking up his work.
North Haven Grange elected the following officers Dec. 10: Master, Annie Lobley; overseer Julia Beverage; lecturer, Alice Sampson; steward, Owen Grant; assistant steward, George Beverage; chaplain, Isa Beverage; treasurer, Nettie Beverage; secretary, Maribeh Crockett; gatekeeper, Rodney Haskell; Ceres, Ruth Parsons; Pomona, Annie Waterman; Flora, Stella Powers; lady assistant steward, Thelma Burgess; organist, Nellie Beverage; executive committee for 3 years, Frank Waterman. Installation of officers will be Jan. 7. The Grange will serve a chicken supper Dec. 17, tickets 50 cents a plate. Grangers only.

Gregory-Woodworth
Harlan Gregory of Vinalhaven and Miss Emily Woodworth of North Haven were united in marriage, Dec. 11, at Vinalhaven, by Daniel Glidden, and were attended by the groom's grandmother and Mrs. Glidden. They will reside at the home of the bride for the present while seeking a rent. Miss Woodworth is a very charming and lovely young woman and they both have many friends. Heartiest congratulations are extended and a long life of happiness together is wished for them.

WEST ROCKPORT
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Price left Monday morning for Plymouth, Mass., where they will remain for an indefinite period.
Mrs. Ida Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hunt and Miss Lottie Ewell of Rockville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leman Oxten.
The Mission Circle met this week with Mrs. Charles Rhodes. Wednesday afternoon a tacking was held at the church.
After two years in the grocery business J. F. Heal has resumed his wheelwright and jobbing work.
The school gave a Christmas entertainment at Engine hall Wednesday evening under the direction of the teacher Miss Marion Hardy.
The Sunday School Christmas concert and tree will be held at the church Saturday evening, Dec. 24.
Mrs. Mary Andrews entertained the Tuesday Club very pleasantly Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served.
Use Hardesty Peerless Flour liberally and cut down food bills.—adv. 124-S-47

WALDOBORO
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whitcomb were in Portland Friday to see their son John who is at the State Street Hospital for treatment.
Mrs. Kate Matthews has gone to Massachusetts where she will pass the winter.
Mrs. Nina Goucher is visiting relatives in Auburn.
Col. and Mrs. William Tudor Gardiner were guests of friends in town last week.
Lendon C. Waltz has gone to Portland.
Karl Hoffes has been in Boston a few days.
Mrs. Thomas Kingsbury of Portland has been the guest of her sister Mrs. Charles Rowe.
William H. Brooks, Jr., is in Montclair, N. J.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lilly of Gardiner were recent guests at Charles Lilly's.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Oldis and daughter Helen have gone to Florida.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jesseman and Mrs. Lizzie Smith left Monday for the South, where they will spend the winter.
Russell S. Greenwood, superintendent of schools, has been in Skowhegan.
Much sympathy is expressed for

WITH THE BOWLERS

The scene of the Forty Club's bowling league activities shifted to the Recreation Alleys Thursday night, when Teams 4 and 1 came out on the wrong end of the horn.

Team 4 beat Team 2 by a margin of 51 points, Peterson having the largest string and largest three-string total. The summary:

Team 4 (4 points)—Allen, 261; A.
Bird, 280; Jackson, 246; Peterson,
300; total, 1087.

Team 2 (1 point)—Scarlett, 242;
Crockett, 247; Off, 272; Miligan,
285; total, 1026.

Team 1 had a margin of 45 pins over Team 3. Shields carried off the honors for three-string total and Mc-Kinney had the largest string. The summary:

Team 1 (3 points)—Joy, 227; P.
Studley, 239; McKenney, 307; Shields,
316; total, 1089.

Team 3 (1 point)—Trainer, 226; McAlary, 246; Rogers, 291; Glenden-ning, 281; total, 1044.

In the Industrial League at the Recreation Alleys last night C. M.
P. No. 2 won four straight points from the Federals, and C. M. P. No.
1 won three points out of four with Caslon Press. Summaries in Tuesday issue.

Clarence Lamson (known as Lamie) is again repairing cars at the Glen Cove Garage, with a lot of new equipment. All customers will receive the best of service. A new device for dressing auto tops for wet weather has been installed.—adv.

THOMASTON

The World Wide Guild will meet with Florence Young, Georges street
Tuesday evening. There will be a Christmas tree, each one to bring a ten cent present. All those who have Guild books please bring them to Miss Florence Young.

Miss Nellie Gardner came from Castine Friday to spend the holidays with relatives.

Invitations are now out for a private dancing party Dec. 27 to the younger social set who are at home from school and college for the holidays. The party will be given by Mrs. John E. Walker. The small amount asked will go towards a fund for repairs on the historic "Old church on the hill," so closely connected with Gen. Henry Knox and his days. The patronesses to assist Mrs. Walker will be Mrs. John Creighton, Mrs. Albert Gould, Mrs.
Charles W. Creighton, Mrs. Frank Collamore of Thomaston, Mrs. Ralph Wiggin and Mrs. Edward J. Heller of Rockland.

The senior class Thomaston High School will have a Christmas sale and dance at Watts hall, Dec. 21.

Mr. Addie Guild and mother, Mrs.
Liscomb are leaving Saturday for Providence where they will pass the remainder of the winter.

Howard Stetson, two and one-half years of age, fell Wednesday and struck the sharp edge of a couch, seriously injuring his right eye.

The Thomaston-Warren bus has been out of commission several days.
The driver ditched his car to allow another one to pass and in trying to back out of the ditch broke the gear on the rear axle. The machine being of a 1921 model it is difficult to find the parts needed.

William Tarbox visited his mother
this week, returning to New York Friday.

Mrs. A. F. Rice is leaving today for a prolonged absence. She has planned to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Wendell Robinson in Flushing, N. Y. Mrs. Rice has nephews and nieces in several of the Western and Northwestern States whom she will visit and will also spend sometime in California.

The funeral services of the late Clarence L. Maguire will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist Church instead of the afternoon 2:30 previously stated.

Wednesday night several boy scouts attended the Court of Honor in Rockland. Three of them took 14 merit badges. Billie Strong passed the test for second class scout.
Thomaston has three first class and four second class scouts. The remainder are classed as tenders.

George French is the pleased recipient of a graphophone from his son Frank of Montreal, Canada. It will be of much assistance to Mr. French in entertaining his friends.

The correspondent accepted an invitation to attend the closing exercises of grades 5-8 inclusive in the Andrews gymnasium Friday afternoon. Music had a prominent place in the program. The High School Orchestra with Herbert Kirkpatrick, leader, and Miss Maloney at the piano furnished the instrumental part. The pupils sang Christmas carols and other songs with fine effect. A march with Miss Thorndike as leader was well performed and called forth general applause. The physical exercises were a good feature of the program. Recitations and readings were well done and to the credit of those who rendered them could be heard in all parts of the room. A spelling match was a reminder of the school days of long ago when spelling matches were a prominent feature even in the High School.
These grades have well trained teachers who are giving faithful service.

ROCKPORT

The regular meeting of Harbor Light Chapter will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 preceded by picnic supper. Degrees will be conferred on candidates.

TENANT'S HARBOR

Whitney Wheeler is home from University of Maine for the holidays.

CAME FROM BEHIND

Orange Streaks Won Hard Fought Game From Crosby High.

After getting away to a bad start the Rockland High Orange Streaks came back in the last half and rolled up enough points to defeat Crosby High of Belfast 35 to 17 at the local gym last night. The locals lacked their customary dash in the first half and missed many shots, but in the last two periods they came back with plenty of dash and ran circles around the visitors.

Trafton started the scoring when he looped one through the net for two points in the first two minutes of play. Thomas came through for Belfast with another two-pointer, and the score remained at 2 to 2 until near the end of the first period when Trafton and Jim Flanagan made baskets to put the locals in the lead.
For a short time in the second period the Orange Streaks lived up to their name but it was not for long and the half ended with Rockland leading 12 to 9.

Going into the last half with the determination to increase their lead the Macomber coached outfit ran off play after play for two points. First it was a pass from Trafton to Jim Flanagan for a basket, then from Jim Flanagan to Trafton and another basket. The R. H. S. five had hit its stride and there was no stopping Capt. Jim Flanagan and his mates.
Coach Macomber ran in his subs near the end of the third period but the regulars came back in again in the last quarter and made life miserable for the upriver teams defense.

The last period saw the locals put on their last burst of speed and after rolling up 12 points they fell back into the habit of slowing up and soon the reserves came onto the floor again. As every regular left the floor he was given a great hand by the fans.

For Rockland Capt. Jim Flanagan was the chief point getter with 14 points to his credit. He was closely followed by Fowler who had 12.
Black was the high point man for the visitors with 7 markers. Although the offense was not as good as usual the defense was cared for in great shape by Jud Flanagan and Buck Parsons.

Referee, Wotton. Time, four 8-minute periods.

The Belfast Reserves defeated the local reserve outfit 28 to 27 in a game that was not decided till two overtime periods had been played. Bisbee and Verrill put up good games for the locals.

The next basketball game here will take place Wednesday, Dec. 28 when the High School outfit tackles a team made up of Alumni of the school.
The former schoolboys never fail to put a good team on the floor and this year will be no exception.

THE REALM OF MUSIC

Gladys St. Clair Morgan

Having studied voice with Allan Ramsay of Bath one winter when he conducted a studio here, I naturally was much interested in the recital he gave before the Cecilia Club of Augusta Nov. 30. Mr. Ramsay, who is a baritone, was assisted by Miss Lucy Titcomb, violinist, and had for his accompanist Francis McPherson. He appeared on the program in four groups of songs—well chosen and interesting, as follows:

Nina	.....Pergolesi
Star Vind	.....Rosa
Canto del Presidario in Spanish	.....Alvar
Dedication	.....Franz
From Grief	.....Franz
Finch and Thrush	.....D'Albert
Wake the Echo	.....Jensen
Oriental Romance	.....Rimsky-Korsakov
Celle que je Prefer	.....Fourdrain
Recitative and aria from "Herodias"	.....Massenet
Vision Fugitive	.....Massenet
In a Garden	.....Hawley
Padrig	.....Bizar
Brown Men	.....Braine
The Robin Sings	.....McDowell
Morale	.....Speaks

Mr. Ramsay wrote a Rockland friend: "The recital went off splendidly to a 'packed' club, and they were very cordial. This is the third time I've sung for them since my study days, and they are always fine to me. Some French ladies present were very gracious, saying that my French songs were beautifully done. I felt very happy."

An interesting feature of the radio program presented at the Rubinstein Club meeting last week was the presence of Florian L. Clark, trombonist, who is one of the few Rockland musicians who has actually broadcast, recently from station WCHS in connection with the service of the Radio Parish Church of Portland. He gave two numbers on the Rubinstein program, "The Holy City" and "No Night There," charming his hearers by the beautiful tone and suavity of his performance.

Mr. Clark should be able to accomplish something quite worthwhile in the line he wishes to adopt, gospel song work, as he is a conscientious student, an apt pupil and an artist at heart. The trombone lends itself to the dignity and smoothness of gospel songs, its deep rich tone giving color and expression.

Mr. Clark hopes to study the course presented by Mr. Cimeru, considered one of the greatest trombone teachers in this country and conceded by some as among the greatest in the world. This course is sent out under the personal supervision of Mr. Cimeru, a large portion of it is conveyed through talking machine records. It is said to be very comprehensive.

Adelbert Sprague, who conducts the Bangor Symphony Orchestra and so successfully managed the Festival concert last October, announces that details are already well in hand for the 1928 festival. There have been several radical changes in the policies, among them the date changed from October to May, and three concerts instead of the five which has been the custom of the Maine Music Festivals. Mr. Sprague appreciates that having the festival in May means that more concentrated and intensive work must be done on the choruses, but feels this can be done in a creditable manner. While he has not made public the 1928 artists, he does state that it will be a group that will cause a stir in musical circles by their renown.

Since the above was put in type engagement of the Cleveland symphony orchestra, one of the four major orchestras of the United States, for three concerts at the Eastern Maine Music Festival in Bangor on May 2 and 3 has been announced.

Miss Edith Castle, contralto, who conducted vocal classes in Rockland for a few summers in the past gave a program at the Professional Women's Club last Tuesday at the Hotel Statler. Miss Castle is an established singer of Boston and New England.

Tomorrow afternoon and the following Monday evening the Handel and Haydn Society will offer its annual performances of "The Messiah," singing for the first time under the baton of Serge Koussevitzky, for the benefit of the pension fund of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which will furnish the instrumental accompaniment. The soloists will be Frieda Hempel soprano; Kathryn Meale, contralto; Arthur Hackett, tenor; and Fraser Gange, bass.

How many performances of "The Messiah" has the Handel and Haydn Society given since its organization? Can some reader of this column tell?

In the death a week ago today of Emil Mollenhauer, the Handel and Haydn Society lost one of its most vital figures, who had been its conductor since 1899. He was associated with the musical life of Boston for 40 years. To list the organizations is nearly to summarize that city's choral and orchestral activities, not to except the Symphony Orchestra, since he was from 1887 to 1888 a violinist in its ranks, and was its leader at two World Expositions—at St. Louis in 1904 and San Francisco in 1915. He was considered an authority whose advice the majority of singers in oratorio sought.

The choir of the First Baptist Church tomorrow evening is giving a Christmas cantata which should attract music lovers. The usual choir has been augmented by several local vocalists and instrumentalists, the detail of which appears in another column. The service Christmas Sunday evening will be given over to the young folks of the church in their annual concert and pageant.

In Mr. O'Hara's recent letter he made mention of the Sesquicentennial Exposition organ which Cyrus H. K. Curtis has presented to the University of Pennsylvania. This organ is to be set up in the William B. Irvine auditorium. It was built by the Austin Organ Co., (builder of the Kottschmar organ in Portland) for the city of Philadelphia as a feature of the exposition. This is another in the generous manifestations of Mr. Curtis who is ever encouraging the best in organ music.

The winners of the finals of the Atwater-Kent Foundation national amateur radio audition are Agnes Davis, 24, of Denver, and Wilbur W. Evans, 22, of West Philadelphia, each won first prizes of $5,000 cash and two years' musical tuition. Emilia da Prato, 20, of South San Francisco, and Ted A. Roy, 22 of Corvallis, Ore., second prizes each, $2,000 cash and one year of musical tuition. While New England was not fortunate in having a winner, we are proud that the eastern district produced one of the first prize winners in Mr. Evans.

Rehearsals are progressing satisfactorily on the cantata "Prince of Peace" by J. Truman Wolcott, to be given at the Universalist Church Sunday afternoon as a vesper service following Christmas Sunday. A chorus composed of the young people of the church and the older singers will assist the regular quartet, and Miss Stahl, organist, will have for her allies Miss Isabel Lamb, pianist, and A. R. Marsh, violin. A feature of the cantata will be the solo work chiefly by younger singers, Misses Mary Bird, Adelaide Cross and Lucy Marsh and Henry Marsh.

The Ladies Circle of the Baptist church held its annual Christmas sale and supper at the vestry Wednesday afternoon and evening. The decorations were of red and green and in keeping with the Christmas season. The fancy table which was in charge of Mrs. Eliza Jones and Mrs. S. Josephine Wall was liberally patronized. All kinds of aprons were sold by Mrs. Annie Deane and Mrs. Nellie Wilkins; Mrs. Agnes Shibles had charge of the mystery tree, and homemade candy was sold by Mrs. Mabel Walker. At 5.30 an old-fashioned baked bean supper was served in charge of the president of the circle, Mrs. Minetta Paul. She was assisted by Mrs. Addie Knowlton, Mrs. Ella Overlock, Mrs. Nellie Grotton and Mrs. Augusta Shibles. The menu included baked beans, brown bread, cabbage sauté, pickles, doughnuts, pies, cake and coffee. The waitresses were Mrs. Hazel Cain, Mrs. Vic Butler, Mrs. Ethel Spear, Miss Clara Walker, Mrs. Ada Clough, Mrs. Florence McKenney and Mrs. Louise Moody. The proceeds amounted to about $73.
